JUDGE(S):

- Must be present at least 10 min. prior to the Brace.
- Communicates by radio to the Marshal regarding time. Notifies Marshal to start the clock to begin each brace. Notifies Marshal and handler to start the clock regarding honoring and/or Dead Bird. A Judge may be required to monitor time for honors, and/or dead birds in the event of communication issues with the Marshal's table.
- Informs the handler on time remaining in the brace and when time is up in the brace.
- The Judge observes all activity of the dog, handler and gunner during the brace.

AZPDC Trial Rules

- Utilizing the current Trial Rule Book the Judge records the scoring of the performance of the dog. Monitors the activity of the handler, gunner, and other participants and notifies them of any hazards which may jeopardize safety.
- When the Judge is notified by the handler that the dog is on point the judge will communicate with the gunner and handler as to their safest position. The judge will then notify the handler of the dog on point if an honor has been requested. The judge for the honoring dog will notify the marshal to start the clock after the handler has declared the honor. The judge will then begin scoring for the honor. In the event of a divided find the judge(s) will determine which dog will be awarded the find or honor and each dog will be scored accordingly based on specific class rules. The judges will notify handlers of the general location of a dead bird. The judge will use discretion in order to determine when to remove dead birds (scored upon), bird in tree, bird in obstacle and all poorly flying birds in the field. Judges will notify handler of opportunity to pursue a safety bird or missed shot bird. Scores shall be immediately recorded after the dog's performance on the scorecard. Notations regarding questionable events, which occur during the brace, are recommended. Judges will notify handlers to leash dogs at the end of the brace. Judges will secure all dead birds and deliver scored cards to the marshal's table.

BIRD PLANTER(S):

- Bird planters are responsible for planting birds before each brace.
- Bird planting technique can vary depending on terrain, weather, individual birds, and the planter's personal discretion.
- Planters can dizzy the bird and tuck its head under a wing (often stroking the bird's chest to relax the bird) for a tight plant. The bird can also be tossed/placed without dizzying into a bush for a much looser plant. Note that most birds tend to move towards trees, so planting near the edge of a bird field with trees nearby and outside the boundary of the bird field will often result in birds migrating out of bounds.
